Introducing TrachMar

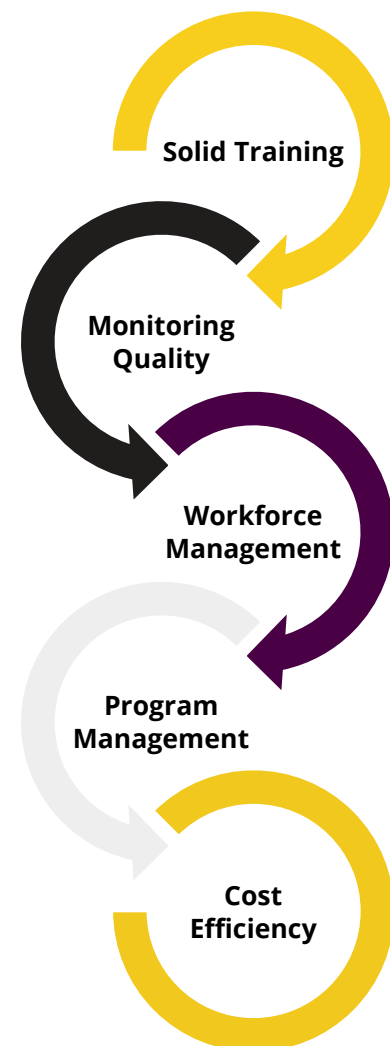

Streamlined | Communications | Strategies

TrachMar offers a full suite of contact center and print services for public and private sector clients. We are experts at integrating multiple communications channels — like voice, email, chat, and direct mail — into a unified solution. We develop a clear understanding of our clients' needs, whether we are managing a total solution or managing a total solution, providing individual service lines, or integrated as part of our clients' larger team. TrachMar is committed to excellence, and delivering knowledge, experience, and expert guidance to you and your customers.

Our experience is industry-agnostic. We're able to help organizations across a diverse collection of industries and markets. We pride ourselves on our ability to drive impact and deliver results to each of our clients.

Since 2008, we have been committed to delivering consistent, efficient, and quality customer engagement services for our clients. We invite you to experience the difference our expertise brings.

Business Process Outsourcing

Choosing TrachMar as your Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) provider can reduce expenses and increase efficiency by outsourcing non-core tasks. This enables companies to concentrate on their primary activities and potentially expand more rapidly. TrachMar offers access to global specialists, advanced technology, and skilled workers, enhancing service quality and innovation at lower costs. Additionally, it allows your company to allocate resources according to market demands, work more productively, remain competitive, and save on operational costs. Selecting TrachMar as your BPO partner will enhance productivity, improve efficiency, and reduce your operational costs.

Helping you adopt Artificial Intelligence

The development of and advancements in artificial intelligence (AI) provide businesses with opportunities to work more efficiently, make informed decisions, and offer customers a personalized experience. Integrating AI into a business model can lead to increased productivity, cost savings, and new data insights that drive innovation, provide a competitive edge, and ensure long-term success.

Having an advisor like TrachMar to assist with adopting AI is important. TrachMar can help ensure AI is used ethically and legally, while safeguarding customers, business operations, and employees. While AI still presents some challenges including data privacy, biases, and evolving regulations, TrachMar can help you navigate those complexities and ensure the use of AI remains fair, transparent, and secure. With appropriate support and guidance from TrachMar, businesses can effectively utilize AI to innovate and enhance their operations.

Print Services

TrachMar's print and fulfillment operation provides a deep understanding of the complex printing industry, assisting our clients in navigating print solutions and maximizing effectiveness and efficiencies. Whether it's short run, highly customized print-on-demand digital jobs, traditional offset printing, high-volume web press, or large format projects, TrachMar has the broad skill set to design and execute solutions that maximize effect at a competitive rate.

Printing Services

- Digital/Print-on-Demand

Leadership Team

Our leadership team is comprised of industry professionals with deep experience in delivering the services TrachMar offers at a level of excellence that is second-to-none. We pride ourselves on being able to adapt our experience and our knowledge to deliver cost-effective results for each of our clients.

Company Profile, Compliance, and Security

TrachMar is a Limited Liability Company (LLC) that elects S-Corp status. We have contact center teams in Austin, TX, and Guatemala City, Guatemala. At all locations, our clients have ready access to their project managers, front-line supervisors, and — most importantly — their agents. TrachMar's operations are designed to be responsive and nimble, allowing us to launch new programs or pivot within existing programs very quickly. Additionally, we can operate with remote team members, where possible, to provide the ultimate flexibility. This also means that, no matter where you're located, TrachMar can help!

We understand how important the security and integrity of data is to your business and your customers. For that reason, we take compliance seriously. TrachMar's team has the knowledge to help you navigate the most complex information compliance situations.

In addition to a robust training and education program to protect the security of your data (including HIPAA training for all employees), TrachMar employs a variety of physical security measures to safeguard the data we're entrusted with. This includes 24/7 secured access to our facilities and security camera monitoring.

Our network and database infrastructure resides outside the physical contact center and requires dual security access. Database transmissions are always encrypted, and each member of our data management team is required to pass rigorous background checks.
